BLOOMINGTON'S RECOGNIZED RESOURCE FOR SENIORS

THURSDAY, APRIL 25th

Elder Law...more than just estate planning

PRESENTED BY

Lance Like

Attorney at Law

You'd think that by our senior years our legal dealings would be ramping down, but it's just the opposite. There are so many things we need to have in place to ensure we get the benefits to which we are entitled and that key decisions are made in the way we want.

No one likes talking about what will happen when we or other family members can no longer take care of themselves, make decisions, or can no longer live alone or stay in the family home. But aging is inevitable, and not talking about the big questions ("Where do I want to be?" "How do I want to be cared for?" "What do I want to happen to my things?") doesn't make them go away.

Attorney Lance Like will walk us through some of the issues like Medicaid/Long Term Care, estate planning, asset protection, wills, trusts, VA benefits, and more.

Lance D. Like is a Bloomington, Indiana attorney, has been Board Certified as an Estate Planning and Administration Specialist and is an Accredited Attorney with the Veteran's Administration. Lance has extensive experience in the areas of estate and wealth transfer planning, asset protection planning, elder law, Medicaid planning, long-term care planning, probate and trust administration, business succession planning, business formation and operation, and real estate. In his estate, wealth transfer planning, and elder law representation, Lance works closely with individuals and families to craft comprehensive and customized plans.
