BLOOMINGTON'S RECOGNIZED RESOURCE FOR SENIORS

THURSDAY, AUGUST 24TH

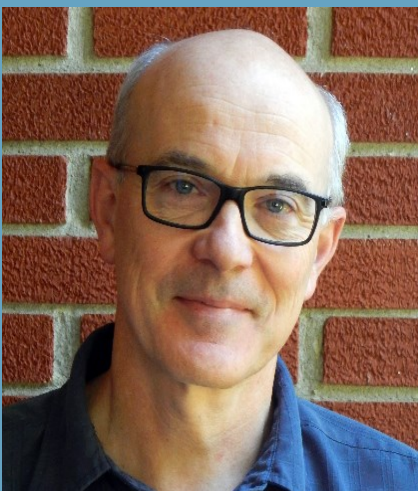

THE GROWTH OF ARTS IN OUR AMAZING COMMUNITY OVER THE PAST 20 YEARS

WITH

Alain Barker

Director of Entrepreneurship and Career Development,
Jacobs School of Music

Bloomington has become an artistic haven. We have a high concentration of artists of all kinds and an even higher concentration of people who love and support the arts. Alain Barker will share with us the journey our little town has taken to become a world-renowned community of color, sound, and movement.

Alain Barker is a force in the Bloomington community for the arts. Alain's performance career took him nationally and internationally. He was previously the Director for the Publicity and Marketing efforts for the Jacobs School of Music. In his "spare" time from the Jacobs School of Music, Alain community involvement includes serving on the City of Bloomington Arts Commission, WFIU (Public Radio) Community Advisory Board, the IU Arts & Humanities Council, Bloomington Early Music, and the Bloomington Rotary Club.
